ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Last Fall Was Laid Yesterday.
The last rail was laid on the street car extension to North Anderson park yesterday and now everything is in readiness for the big fourth of July celebration, which is to take place in that beautiful place. John Linley says that the people of Anderson will have an enjoyable day at his park or it will not be his fault. The completion of the new line will cause a large number more people to make the trip than otherwise would have been the case.

Is To Take A Special Course.
Raymond Cochran, a member of the firm of W. H. Keese & Co., and in charge of the optical department of that well known firm will leave next month for Philadelphia, where he goes to take a special course in optical work in a well known institution. Mr. Cochran has had splendid success with the work since his firm added an optical department and he is determined to secure the best possible preparation for taking care of the increasing business.

Ladies Will Be In Entire Charge.
Buena Vista Park will belong to the ladies this afternoon when the last game of the series will be played between Anderson and Greenville. Both clubs will go after the game today, because of the fact that each team has one victory to its credit. That Anderson will win today and will thus secure the big end of the series is a foregone conclusion. Today will be observed as "Ladies' Day" and every lady will be admitted to the park this afternoon free of charge. It is believed that the attendance will be considerably larger than yesterday.

Theatre Papers Filed Yesterday.
Porter A. Whaley, secretary of the Anderson Theatre Company, yesterday filed in the office of James N. Pearman, clerk of court of Anderson county, the necessary papers in connection with the theatre proposition, to change the name of the company from the Anderson Theatre Company to the Anderson Development Company and to increase the capital stock from $20,000 to $30,000. With these matters completed it is probable that the theatre will be in course of construction within the next few weeks.

Still Talking of Police Changes.
Some talk is still being heard around the city concerning changes on the police force when the new city council goes into office. However, it would seem that the people of the city are fairly well satisfied with the way that the police department has been conducted during the last term, and many do not think that any changes are necessary. They say that Chief Lee has been faithful and efficient at all times and has managed his men well and they do not see any necessity for any changes in this department.

Planning For Editors Visits.
Anderson newspaper men will hold a meeting within the next few days to plan for the visit of the South Carolina Press Association. Headed by Ed. H. DeCamp of Cayney, editor of the Gaffney Ledger and president of the South Carolina Press Association, the pencil pushers will reach Anderson on July 8, coming here on a special train over the Piedmont & Northern Lines, and will spend the day in the city. A number of events will be arranged for them.

The Greek Ships Named for Martyrs.
In view of the fact that there seems to be a war cloud in the east on account of the Albanian troubles, it is of general interest that this country has sold Greece two of our battleships, the Idaho and the Mississippi. With the proceeds of the sale the United States will build a new dreadnaught. Greece has already named the battleships, one to be called the King George and the other Queen Olga, in honor of the beloved king assassinated a few years ago, and his gentle queen. J. K. Manos, the wholesale fruiterer is authority for the information. He is a close observer of Eastern politics.

Unique Idea For Anderson.
Considerable interest has been aroused in the city over an approaching society event which is to take place tomorrow night. The roof garden is somewhat unique in Anderson and it will doubtless prove to be quite enjoyable. The following invitations were sent out yesterday: "Mr. and Mrs. Ashley C. Briggs, Jr., for Miss LaTour, Roof Garden party, Townsend Apartments, Thursday, July 2, 1914, 8:30 to 11 o'clock."

Tells Affairs of Townville.
T. B. Jones of Townville, who was in the city Monday, stated that his section was visited by a good rain last Friday. Mr. Jones is manager of the Fork township oil mill which is winding up a successful year. Next year this company will have ready a mixing plant for fertilizers, to cost about $3,000. The company then will be enabled to mix the ingredients in compliance with orders.

Pathetic Feature Of Kelly's Death.
One pathetic feature in connection with the killing of Joe Kelly by C. C. Poore at Williamston on Monday is that the dead man had a wife and eight little children. He was a man of any means and his family will doubtless feel the loss keenly. No newer developments have become evident since the holding of the coroner's inquest in Williamston Monday night.

Much Interest Over "Ladies' Day" Game.
Much interest was manifested by the ladies of the city over the "ladies' day" program for Buena Vista Park Wednesday afternoon. It has been announced by Porter A. Whaley, president of the Anderson baseball club, that today will be officially designated as ladies' day and every lady in the city will be admitted free to the Greenville-Anderson game. A record breaking attendance is expected.

Atlanta, Ga., June 29.—One feature of Governor John M. Slaton's message to the assembly in causing a great deal of discussion, especially since the governor has shown that he is greatly interested in the subject, this is the matter of indeterminate sentences for convicts.

Cannon, better known to every one familiar with the affairs of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has returned to his "first love" and is again the efficient bookkeeper for the local telegraph office. Mr. Cannon was held this position before and he knows all there is to know about the Anderson office. He succeeds Iby Dickson who has become a Thespian and has taken to the road with a vaudeville attraction.

NO MORE NEGROES Will Fill the Office of Registrar of Deeds in Washington.
Atlanta, Ga., June 29.—The negro federal office holder will go and never come back if Senator Hoke Smith has his way and indications are that he will have it. Through his influence, President Wilson has already got the scalp of Henry Lincoln Johnson, once of Georgia, but until this week recorder of deeds at Washington, and now Senator Smith is preparing a bill destined to remove the office or recorder of deeds and register of wills at Washington from political influence and stop the custom of having them filled by negroes. The bill make none eligible for appointment who has not been a bona-fide resident of the District of Columbia for three years.

Mr. Mattison Is Back From Trip.
M. M. Mattison returned to Anderson last night after a trip of several days to the North. Mr. Mattison was on a business trip but says that he enjoyed it as much as a pleasure excursion. Returning, he came from New York to Charleston by boat and then to Anderson.

The next regular meeting of the Anderson school board will take place next Friday. The meeting will be held at the office of E. C. McCants, superintendent of the city schools, and it is understood that the affairs, for the most part, will be routine.

CONGRATULATES THE BLUE RIDGE

New Move to Help Anderson is Gratefully Received by the Chamber of Commerce

Editor The Intelligencer:

The Blue Ridge Railway Tuesday took a great step for the betterment of Anderson, and representing the Chamber of Commerce, I wish to congratulate them. The inauguration of the gas-electric service to Walhalla based on the schedule as given to our transportation committee gives to Anderson a magnificent local service to all points on the Blue Ridge. Capt. Jno. R. Anderson deserves the thanks of our people. The new service will enable persons along the Blue Ridge to come to Anderson at almost any time, transact their business here and return to their homes the same day.

The new service will be as modern and up to date as any in the United States and of immense benefit to local retail trade and to Anderson's many patrons along the Blue Ridge. In addition to this the new service makes it possible to connect with absolutely all trains on the main line of the Southern. Captain Anderson advises us that the new service will be extensively advertised locally and General Passenger Agent McGee, advises that the service will be extensively advertised in Atlanta, Columbia and elsewhere by the Passenger department of the Southern. Henceforth, all persons travelling to Anderson can make splendid connections for this city from the North, East and West.

We also congratulate Capt. Anderson on his decision to do away with the present passenger equipment on the Blue Ridge and substitute for the same an all-steel equipment, fully equal to that used by any railroad system in the country. This is a big move.

The Blue Ridge Railway has in every respect met the requests of our organization, and has done even more than we asked. They deserve the thanks of all the people living along the Blue Ridge Railway or travelling over it.

The next step now is to get the Blue Ridge Railway completed. It will be. No one is asleep on the proposition. What a city located in a thickly settled country, such as ours, really needs is good local service over its transportation lines, or those lines reaching the people within 50 miles of the city, giving to those people, quick, efficient, modern and frequent service. The Blue Ridge is to do this.

The average city of 50,000 or less, transacts over 80 per cent of its business with people living within 50 miles from such city, and therefore, such are the people to be reached, and to whom the best possible service should be given.

That is what Anderson really wants. This she will have in abundance upon the inauguration of this new service, which together with the service over the G. S. & A. Lines, will give the city absolutely the best local suburban and country service in the State. Greenville, Spartanburg, Columbia, Charleston or no other city in the state will have more trains per day reaching the people within a radius of 50 miles, than Anderson.

The great future, or near future, fact before Anderson is undoubtedly the completion of the Blue Ridge for the consumption of which it is believed President Fairfax Harrison is to give his best efforts, but awaiting that day, we shall now have a splendid local service to all parts of Anderson's legitimate trade territory, the very best in the whole state. Anderson keeps moving. The future of Anderson is safe, certain and
